

LEADERSHIP STARTS HERE

ALIA Summer Institute June 18-23, 2012 Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

"I was impressed by the caliber of the faculty, the depth of the conversations, the power of the tools and processes, and the purposefulness of everyone involved." —Helene Liu, The MasterMinds Group, Hong Kong

"ALIA is a dynamic, living laboratory of personal and collective learning." —Peter Senge, author, The Fifth Discipline and The Necessary Revolution

A May 2010 leadership column in the Washington Post placed the ALIA Summer Institute at the top of its "must-consider events," describing it as a "truly unique leadership development experience."

ALIA INSTITUTE
Authentic Leadership in Action

When we're caught in the pressures and complexity of rapid change, the impulse is to move faster and work harder. In reality we need to step back, think more deeply and broadly, and learn to respond in new ways.

The ALIA Summer Institute is a resource-rich laboratory for generating fresh perspectives and new solutions. Here you will find yourself at eye level with thought leaders, artists, meditation teachers, and inspired leaders, managers, and change-makers from around the world.

You will leave ready to

- step into leadership in a way that is authentic for you
- bring out the leadership in others
- engage uncertainty and change as your allies
- bring together diverse stakeholders to create collaborative solutions
- apply new lenses and strategies to your current project

Register by December 16 to be eligible for the earlybird discount.

Faculty include Erica Ariel Fox (founder, Harvard Negotiation Insight Initiative), James Hodge (Mayo Clinic), Adam Kahane (author, Solving Tough Problems), Art Kleiner (editor, strategy + business magazine), Margaret Wheatley (founder, Berkana Institute), and the Shambhala arts team.

“Society is under pressure to deliver high impact innovation able to tackle large-scale complex problems.”—Tim Draymin, Executive Director, Social Innovation Generation, Canada

LEADERSHIP STARTS HERE

Resilience and Innovation in Turbulent Times

June 18, 9:00 am–4:00 pm

In communities around the world, people are reaching across old divides and working together to “build the road as they walk it” towards a more sustainable and resilient future. In this one-day session you will hear voices and stories from across generations, across sectors, and across the globe. Together we will share our discoveries and surface patterns of success. Be prepared for a day that will engage, challenge, and inspire, and that will leave you with fresh ideas for your own innovations back home.

LEADERSHIP INTENSIVE

June 18, 6:00 pm–June 23 (departures)

Immerse yourself in the practices, skills, and connections you need to empower your leadership and accelerate your work. The Intensive integrates Foundations in Authentic Leadership, Skill-Building for Action, and Community Dialogue and Exchange.

Choose one of the following 15-hour tracks.

- Beyond Yes: Lead Wisely and Live Fully by Mastering the Negotiation Within with Erica Ariel Fox
- Cutting Through Complexity: Working with Power, Timing, and Action with Barbara Bash, Michael Chender & Chris Grant
- Leader as Spiritual Warrior: Transforming Difficulty into the Way of Generosity and Power with Jerry Granelli & Margaret Wheatley
- Scenarios for the Next Generation of Resource Leadership with Art Kleiner & Mary Stacey
- Change Lab: Co-Creating New Social Realities with Adam Kahane & Lenneke Aalbers
- Gifts of Significance: Appreciative Inquiry and the New Philanthropy with James Hodge, Gordon Johnson & Tiffany Paynter
